

The map occupies a popular place in the lobby of the Administration Building. Note how the map is tilted down to the right to reflect the sloped campus. The dark form on the left is a topographic model of a prominent ridged behind campus.