DEPENDENT FEE WAIVER PROGRAM

AFFIDAVIT OF ELIGIBILITY FOR ECONOMICALLY DEPENDENT CHILDREN

In following generally accepted guidelines for transferring a fee waiver benefit to a child (other than natural, adopted, or step-child), this affidavit must be completed by the eligible employee or annuitant attesting to the "parent-child relationship" with the child, including that the child is economically dependent on the employee or annuitant. The child must never have been married and must be under the age of 23 (except for certain disabled dependents). Generally, the parent-child relationship exists when either:

- ▶ The employee or annuitant has legal custody or joint legal custody of the child; or
- ► The child resides with the employee or annuitant (generally in the absence of the natural or adoptive parent), and is economically dependent upon the employee or annuitant; or
- ► The child is the natural, adopted, step or economically dependent child of the employee or annuitant's Domestic Partner where allowed by collective bargaining agreement.
