The University Police Department and Cal Poly Safer would like to take this time to offer these personal safety guidelines:

There are many things you can do to stay safe and help others stay safe; however nothing can prevent an assault besides the perpetrator. It is always their choice to hurt and never the victim/survivor’s fault.

• Be especially aware of your surroundings and the environment around you.
• Do not walk alone, especially at night. Plan your travels through, to and from campus, walk with friends.
• Stay on designated paths and refrain from taking shortcuts through isolated parts of campus.
• If you must be in an isolated area (e.g., working or studying alone in labs or offices) lock the doors when you can and tell a friend where you are and when you plan to leave.
• Keep your cell phone close and dial 9-1-1 or UPD contact numbers programmed into your phone. Know the location of campus emergency telephones on routes to and from campus destinations.
• Keep personal belongings in view while eating, meeting, or studying on campus.
• Whenever you are on campus or off, and see or hear someone who might be in trouble, never hesitate to call 911 and ask for assistance.
